8 Things to Do in New York's Art World Before Jan. 16

Opening and Reading: Taylor Mead at Churner & Churner

Artist, actor and writer Taylor Mead—who is perhaps best known as the subjects of the Warhol film Taylor Mead's Ass (1964), which the gallery will screen on Saturday—will present work from the 1980s, including a series of paintings that “have survived cockroach infestation, subsequent fumigation, and a collapsed ceiling.” He will also read poetry at the opening. — A.R.

Churner & Churner, 205 10th Avenue, New York, 6-8 p.m.
